DATE: December 14, 2007

Sun Optics, Inc. ("Sun Optics") and FGX International, Inc. ("FGX") hereby move the Court for an order staying the above-captioned case for an additional 60 days. The reason for this motion is that the parties have been engaged in settlement negotiations, and have made significant progress toward reaching an agreement. The parties are hopeful that an agreement settling the claims and defenses raised by the parties can be reached in the near future. However, the negotiation process and the exchanging of proposed terms is taking longer than initially anticipated due to the intervening holidays and extensive travel by the principles of both parties. Consequently, to avoid wasting the time and resources of the Court and of the parties, the parties move the Court to extend all dates set forth in the Scheduling Order (D.I. 68) by an additional 60 days. A proposed revised Scheduling Order is attached hereto as Exhibit A. A proposed order granting the present motion is also filed simultaneously herewith.

Respectfully submitted this 14th day of December, 2007.
